Subject: cemetery info

I'm sorry to be the bearer of bad news, but we have no contact information for any trustee or owner of the Mt. Olive Cemetery. Our most current information is from a report from April of 1999. It states, "Cemetery is listed in Auditor's office, no deed, no owner. Public. Cemetery is behind house which was at one time a church." I wish I had more information for you!

It was nice to meet you a few weeks ago. Please let me know if I can be of assistance in the future!

Sincerely,

Jennifer McKinley

Hi Lucy,

Well I found Mom's address book and then this morning I talked to Duane (Toni's Uncle and my cousin) who is Aunt Thelma's son. He said that the address that I have is the last one that he has but that Toni is supposed to call him in the next week or two and that she usually does when she says she will. So he will check on the address for sure at that time.

The one that we both have is: Toni Grant
P O Box 313
Clinton, MS 39060

He said that she still has the same job but has taken on managing a trailer park and has a free double wide trailer and hired her present boss as the maintenance man.
Now you know all that I know.
I suspect that since it is a Box number that she probably uses the same address.

* I will be coming to Indiana (Auburn) sometime before long as I need to get Mom's info put on the headstone where she is buried and I also have a friend from Arizona that is coming in for a visit. She is unfortunately going to be there around the same time that I have a grandson graduating from college but I am hoping that there might be at least a day that we could get together in there. I would love to be able to see you as well.
As for information on me I would think that you would have it all between my son Doug and my Mom. But we can do that later or at least check to see if you do have it all. Mom was pretty good on all of the information with our family and I do have copies of all of the work you had done so far. I just promised Duane that I would see that he got some copies as well. He said that he didn't have anything presently and that Mom had said she would get him some and then never did.
I heard from Mom that you did find Great Grandpa Miller in Indianapolis in a Catholic cemetery??? I might have that mixed up. I was able to track the family back to when they came to Ohio from Pennsylvania but then haven't done any work on the Pennsylvania part yet.

Tax season is nearly done for me so I will have a little more time soon, Yea!!
I will keep in touch and am so sorry that I haven't gotten back to you before now.
Sally (Gingrich) Williams-Ferguson

Rosa's dau > Sally,

I don't know if you remember me or not,I am Rosa's cousin on the Miller side.Also,I was at your Mother's 80 birthday.Doug gave me your address,I hope you don't mind.

I was so sad to hear Rosa had passed away,I had no idea, I had mailed letters to her and also called but no response and my mail never came back.I would have come up for the service if I had known.
She was so sweet to my Mother and to me.

The last time I heard from her she said she had located Thelma's granddaughter and had sent her some sheets that I had sent. Rosa said the granddaughter would fill them out and send them back to her.I am still collecting genealogy on the families. Do you know if,maybe,in an address book or notes that you could find the ladies name and address for me?

I think the marriage license would be a good source. The Noel family connection struck me because of the names. We could make a big assumption that the "N" in Andrew N was for Noel/Noll.

The interesting thing about the Noel and Miller connection is that they were a Catholic family; the history of Conewago Chapel says the families spoke German and were Alsatians. The other thing is that Paul Miller was also known by Muller/Mueller.

That last coincidence is that Nicholas and Tracy/Theresa (I've found her under both on the census in 1850/1860) lived in Oxford, Adams County -- same place where we are looking for the Tracy Winehart mentioned in Theresa Huston's will...

Lucy,

How do you know that Andrew Miler, son of William H, had the middle name of Paul? Andrew N Miller's son was also an Andrew P, but I've never seen anything for William H's son Andrew with a middle initial.

I'm just curious because today I spent some time at my local historical society going through things they had on Adams County (nothing like Allen County library) and I'm looking at a family of Paul Miller who died in 1815. His wife's parents names were Andrew and Theresa Noel. Paul Miller's daughter, Theresa, married in 1804 and she had brothers named Paul, Lewis, John and Ignatius. I'm thinking one of the brothers might be the father of Andrew N.

A lot of coincidence with the names, but so far it is the only thing I've found.

Yes -- 1840 census, Plymouth Township, Richland County Ohio for Adam Lough

I found several snippets about Adam Lough's will on Google, but the most of it from the website of the Richland Genealogical Society -- they have The Pastfinder newsletter that can be searched.

I found Adam "Lough" in land records and on the 1840 census so I started googling for Tracy using Lough and found quite a bit. Including a picture of the gravestone! She was buried as Theresa Miller, wife of Adam Lough. It looks like the family of Isaac Hollenbaugh put up the stone for them. I hadn't been able to figure out why I couldn't find it under Huston...never even tried looking for Miller.

Will records for Adam confirm they were from Adams County and apparently the Hollenbaughs were also from Adams County. So some more digging to do only this time I'll be looking for Loughs! Looks like a big snow coming tonight so maybe I'll even have a day off work tomorrow.

I'm not sure you both got all the pension information for Annie Hazen so I'm resending it again. I didn't get to Adams County yet, but have it on my schedule in March sometime - depends on the weather. Annette

From the pension file:

David A Miller, her brother, served with George and says George was the finest fifer in the regiment.

One affidavitt declares that George "married old man Miller's only daughter and lived on his farm near West Newton for a short time"

Another affidavitt talks about how George was pretty sick when they were first married and had some kind of attack that made both Annie and Mrs. Miller cry. The same affidavitt says that Mrs. Jacob Miller who now lives in Nebraska somewhere said Annie shouldn't marry George because she "would be left a widow".

A handwritten letter from Annie to the pension office (no date) asks the commissioner of pensions to respond to her at her brother Andrew's house in Brooklyn, Indiana.

The best affidavitt and the only concrete proof we have that our William belongs to this family -- William Miller of Swan, Noble County declares "I was well and intimately acquainted with George S. Hazen, late a member of Co. A, 26th Regiment Indiana Vols. prior to his marriage to Annie T. Miller in April 1865. I know of my own personal knowledge that said George S. Hazen was never married but the one time and that was to Annie T. Miller. And I further say that any knowledge of the above facts is obtained from the following sources, viz: the said Annie T. Hazen being my sister"

US Pension Agency -- Pension dropped.Annie Hazen, widow of George S, who was last paid $12 on 4 November 1900 has been dropped because of death - date unknown -- 26 December 1902 - Indianapolis

I didn't get to Adams County yet; there was some bad weather and something else (don't even remember now) got in the way. I have some time off in March so may put it back on my schedule.

The pension file for George Hazen came today -- all 115 pages of it. Most of it is the attempt to get a widow's pension for Annie. This is our girl -- just some snippets from a quick look through the papers:

David A Miller, her brother, served with George and says George was the finest fifer in the regiment.

One affidavitt declares that George "married old man Miller's only daughter and lived on his farm near West Newton for a short time"

Another affidavitt talks about how George was pretty sick when they were first married and had some kind of attack that made both Annie and Mrs. Miller cry. Hazen being my sister"

Sadly, once her claim to a pension was approved (it took 5 years), there are no more records - nothing indicating when her pension payments stopped or where they were being sent at the end.

In Floral Grove Cemetery, Madison Twp., there is a Hannah B. (Keller) Robison 1871-1934, daughter of Daniel & Hannah Anne Aller Keller. In another area of the cemetery is a Daniel Jefferson Keller 1856-1939, but there is no Hannah Keller. This Daniel is probably not the father of Hannah Robison, based on the birthdates. I also have Brady, Springfield, Superior, and Pulaski Twp. books but no Daniel & Hannah Keller listed. I do not have Jefferson Twp.; perhaps they are there. If either of the above is of interest to you, I can send more details and locations.

settled on the farm where he now lives; his farm at that time was almost entirely covered with forest, but, bringing with him the sturdy industry of his native State, he soon had considerable cleared, and under cultivation. He is one of those quiet men who exert an influence in the community in which they live. He was elected Justice of the Peace, and served for twelve years; he was solicited to serve longer but declined to do so, as the interest of his farm required his attention. During the time he was Justice of the Peace, he married forty-two couples. He was married to Miss Elizabeth May, Sept. 14, 1813; they had eight children, seven of whom are living. His children are well to do; his sons being farmers, except John, who is a carpenter. He has survived his wife many years; she died in September, 1855; he lives with his son, Leonard May Hershiser, on the old farm, and is passing the closing days of his life with that serenity which follows a well-spent youth.

HIGGINS, JOHN C., editor of the Shiloh Review; was born in Wayne Co., July 28, 1854. He learned printing in Orrville, Ohio, and worked as a journeyman on many of the leading papers of the State. Since his taking charge of the Review, he has increased its circulation, and made it a welcome visitor to the households of the patrons; he has brought up the paper in tone, and made it one of the leading weeklies of the county.

HUNTER, ELIZA, MRS., widow of John B. Hunter, was born in Onondaga Co., N. Y., Oct. 2, 1812; her maiden name was Ellis; she spent her youth on her father's farm; she was married Oct. 9, 1831; they have three children, all living; her husband died in August, 1836; she was therefore left alone with three small children, for whom she had to provide, but being a woman of excellent health, she managed to provide plentifully for them; she remained in New York after her husband's death, until 1844, when she came to Ohio, being accompanied by her brother, Sydney Ellis, and settled in Greenwich Township, Huron Co., where she shortly afterward purchased 10 acres of land; not getting possession of the little land for several months, she in the mean time worked for her neighbors at whatever she could find to do; after she moved into her home, she followed weaving for many years, and as there was plenty of work, she wove during the day, and in the evening did her housework; she thus succeeded in making a comfortable living for herself and children. She, with her family, went to Kansas, in 1857, and preempted land and returned to Kansas City, Mo., and engaged in hotel-keeping for two years; thence to Leavenworth, Kan., where she kept hotel one year. She returned to Ohio about 1860, and moved to Shiloh in 1869, where she is now living with her daughter, Mrs. Thorp, enjoying good health.

HUNTER, S. S., foreman and manager of Breneman's dry-goods and clothing store, Shiloh. He was born in Onondaga Co., N. Y., Feb. 10, 1834; about the age of 16 years, he went to work at the carpenter trade and remained at that about six years; he then went to Kansas City, Mo., and was engaged in a hotel about two years and a half; he then resumed his trade for a short time in Missouri; he went to New Orleans and worked at his trade for about six months; thence to Copiah Co., Miss., where he stayed about two years, engaged in contracting and building; he left Mississippi for Ohio, March 4, 1861; after arriving in Ohio he followed his trade up to the close of the war; he then farmed for three years, after which he removed to Shiloh, and took charge of the grocery and provision store of John Breneman; he was out of business for one year, after which time he took charge of the present business. He was married to Miss Julana C. Breneman Dec. 29, 1864; they have six children, five boys and one girl, all living.

HUSTON, TRACY, MRS., widow of Jesse Huston; she was born in Adams Co., Penn., March 4, 1811; her maiden name was Tracy Miller; she came of Pennsylvania German parentage, and inherits the characteristics of that people; she came to Ohio with her first husband, Adam Louck, about 1839; they lived one year in Stark Co.; they then came to Richland Co., where Mr. Louck died, in 1848; she was again married to John Clay, and removed to Ashland Co., where she remained five years; Mr. Clay dying, she was again married to Jesse Huston, with whom she lived until he was killed by a horse running away with him in Shiloh in April, 1879; having no children, she took Isaac Hollenback (who now lives on her farm), when he was about two months old. He taught school for twelve terms, and is highly respected by the community, thus showing he was instructed well in his youth.

LONG, DAVID, an early pioneer and retired farmer; was born in Knox Co., Ohio, Nov. 29, 1811. When he was 4 years old, his father, John Long, came to Richland Co. and settled where Richland (better known as Planktown) is now, about 1815; at that time there were no neighbors nearer than three miles, and the next nearest were five miles; he entered the land and built the first log cabin in the upper end of the township; he formerly came from York Co., Penn.; the first school taught in the township was in the log cabin which was built by Mr. John Long, when he had settled in the county; he died in 1842, aged about 77 years. David Long, the subject of this sketch, remained at home until he was about 20 years of age, and then went to farming near Richland; farmed for several years, and then moved to where he now resides—this was about the year 1839—where he has since remained; he was the ninth child of a family of ten children; he has seen two generations pass away, and has experienced the hardships of an early pioneer life. He joined the Methodist Church at an early age, and has been a consistent member of that denomination ever since, taking a lively interest in the work. There are six of the family still living—David Long, aged 68; twin sister, 68; W. W. Long, 71; Mrs. Murry, 74; Mary Wooly, 83; Hugh Long, 84. David Long was married to Miss Emily Rose Oct. 13, 1836; they had four children; his wife died Nov. 4, 1870.

Yes, I'm sure that Tracy Huston must be Andrew N Miller's sister. In the family papers I have, it always seems to be Treesie and that is how my mother says it. You can see how it easily became Tracy. In fact, I wonder if Tracy is just a corruption of Teresa.

That's what we called

I have a Friday off in a couple weeks and am planning (if the weather is good) to drive over to the historical society in Adams County to see if there might be some nugget on our Millers in old family files. There are just so many Millers in that area it is just impossible to sort them out.

Believe it or not, I don't have any of the current family members in my database. I once shared the DeHoff info with a woman who immediately put it all onto Rootsweb. She took off living people as soon as I asked, but others had already grabbed the information and the damage was done. Out of curiousity and the hope that some other branch of the family might know more about Andrew and Sarah, I have tracked their children and grandchildren as far as I can -- and I recently discovered that William's brother, Andrew P Miller died in Greenwood, Johnson County in 1930. He had remarried after his first wife died, and must have been the last of that generation.

If I find anything in Adams County I'll be sure and sent it to you as well.

The book "Hazen in America" lists George Sibley Hazen who married Annie T. Miller and lived in Indianapolis 1891 to 1901 -- I finally found them in Decatur Township, Marion County in 1870, too. !

X There are too many coincidences so I have ordered his Civil War pension file since there is also a pension file for Annie as his widow. Cross your fingers that her paperwork includes her parents' names. Should know something in about a month.

Subject: Teresa "Anna" Miller

I think we have been able to find Andrew and Sarah's daughter because she may have gone by her middle name. I did a general census search in Marion County, Indiana for Hazen as mentioned in the real estate record for Tracy Huston and found an "Anna" Hazen, wife of George, who lived in Indianapolis in 1880 and 1900. 1900 shows her birth in June of 1845 and 1880 gives her birth in 1846 -- both say born in Ohio. 1880 shows both father and mother born in Pennsylvania. I can't find her in Indiana in 1870 at all -- if she is really who we are looking for anyway...

Morgan County records have an Anna Miller married to George Hazen 4 April 1865.

George Hazen was also a musician in the 26th Indiana Infantry -- like David A Miller.

Let me know if you have any thoughts on this.

Sarah Miller died before 19 December 1889 in West Newton, Marion County, IN. She moved to West Newton about 1886 since the Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church records for the 1886-1887 class at Mt. Olive lists Sarah Miller "who lives at West Newton". No burial place has been located for Sarah, but since the burials in West Newton Cemetery are well-documented, it is probable that she is buried at Mt. Olive Cemetery in Madison Township, Morgan County, Indiana where there are several markers missing next to Andrew N. Miller. Sarah Miller's age varies widely through the Federal Census records; it is likely that her age noted at the time of her death is the most accurate.

Children of ANDREW MILLER and SARAH KOPENHOVER are:

4 i. WILLIAM H. MILLER, born 10 Jan 1840 in Crawford Co Ohio; died 14 Jul 1920 in Marion, IN Grant Co VA Cemetery; married CATHERINE CARIS 02 Oct 1864 in Crawford Co Ohio.

From the pension file: George S Hazen
David A Miller her brother served with George and says George was the finest fifer in the regiment.

One affidavitt declares that George "married old man Miller's only daughter and lived on his farm near West Newton for a short time"
Another affidavitt talks about how George was pretty sick when they were first married and had some kind of attack that made both Annie and Mrs. Miller cry. The same affidavitt says that Mrs. Jacob Miller who now lives in Nebraska somewhere said Annie shouldn't marry George because she "would be left a widow".

A handwritten letter from Annie to the pension office (no date) asks the commissioner of pensions to respond to her at her brother Andrew's house in Brooklyn Indiana.

[The best affidavitt and the only concrete proof we have that our] William belongs to this family -- William Miller of Swan Noble County declares "I was well and intimately acquainted with George S. Hazen late a member of Co. A 26th Regiment Indiana Vols. prior to his marriage to Annie T. Miller in April 1865. I know of my own personal knowledge that said George S. Hazen was never married but the one time and that was to Annie T. Miller. And I further say that any knowledge of the above facts is obtained from the following sources viz: the said Annie T. Hazen being my sister"

ANNETTE DEHOFF NOTES

I spent a few hours one evening trying to figure out Margaret Monaweck and finally find her "real" last name and a family to boot. Someone has done some research on this family in Malmsheim, Germany and submitted it to the LDS.

Census records for Jacob Mornaweck/Monaweck for Columbiana County, Ohio in 1830/40 and Jacob Jr and Sr in Portage County, Ohio in 1850 are year perfect for ages. There is no record of burial for Jacob and Margaret in Portage County, but they are not living with Jacob Jr in 1860 as they were in 1850. Jacob Jr moved to St. Joseph County, Indiana by 1870.

The only discrepancy is the birth of our Margaret in 1816, instead of 1818 - the date is the same however.

Mr. Andrew Weaver
Date of Birth: Tuesday, May 12, 1868 Date of Death: Saturday, July 15, 1911
Obituary Text
The death of Andrew Weaver occured at 2:20 am July 15, and the death of his mother, Mary Weaver, took place at 1:30pm the same day.
Funeral services were conducted at the church of the Brethren at Yellow Creek by Revs Martin Ramer and I S Burns,
The scene was quite singular. An aged mother and a son to lie in death's estate drew a large assembly; and about five hundred or more people attended the funeral. Those in attendance from a distance were Mrs Nancy Brenneman and her son, Samuel Brenneman of Orville, Ohio, and Samuel Weaver of Harbor Springs, Mich.
Andrew Weaver was born in Elkhart Co., May 12, 1868, died July 15, 1911, aged 43 years, 2 months and 3 days. He was untied in marriage to Sarah Tshcupp, May 4, 1890. To this union were born three sons and one daughter. His son Roscoe, proceded him to the spirit world nine years ago. He leaves a wife, two sons and one daughter and a number of friends to mourn his departure. He was a member of the Church of the Brethren for a number of years.
Mary Weaver [nee] Martin was born in Cumberland Co. PA., May 26, 1829, and departed this life July 15, 1911 aged 82 years, one month and 18 days, living about eleven hours after her son's death. She seem to be reconciled to death's call and soon embraced its silent summons.
She was untied marriage to Samuel W Weaver in Wayne County Ohio, Jan 22, 1850. To this union were born nine children; six sons and three daughters, all having preceded her in death except her son Samuel of Harbor Springs Mich.

Jacob Sr. Bair (b. April 23, 1758, d. November 27, 1840)
Jacob Sr. Bair was born April 23, 1758 in Hagerstown, Washington Co, MD, and died November 27, 1840.

Notes for Jacob Sr. Bair:
It is assumed that the first three of Jacob's children were born in Maryland previous to their coming to Pennsylvania in 1787 (History of Bair Family by Hubert Bair)

Farn in PA was located in Adams County (Germany Tew, York Co - Note: York Co divided in 1800 & Adams Co formed with Gettysburg being the County seat). Deed transfer reveals that Jacob & Barbara Bair sold their farm to John Weikert and Hannah Par on April 18, 1805
(History of Bair Family, pg 2 & 3, by Hubert Bair). In October 2001, Judy Bair Bank and her husband, Tom, along with my wife, Oreta, and myself, found the Jacob Bair Sr. farm just north of Littlestown, PA. See Notes under my name, Ned Bair Miner, for further details.

Jacob Bair Sr arrived in Ohio in 1805. He had the first Ohio Deed issued in Range 1, Tp 8, Sec 7 by Rudolph Bair on 20 Jan 1806. (Records of Warstler Church and Probate Records, Stark Co, OH) These lands were located in Fairfield Tew. several miles west of Columbiana, OH The records of Stark Co. show a Patent issued by James Madison, Pres.to Jacob Bair of Columbiana Co. covering southeast quarter of lot or section number 3 Plain Twp. dated May 23, 1810 (Chas. W. Bair Genealogy, pg 11, Chapter VII)

Stark County formed from Columbiana County in 1809.
Assumed Jacob passed away at home of son, John, as settlement of estate allowed a bill for burial (History of Bair Family by Hubert E. Bair, pg 6).

Bair Family - In 1709 six brothers, Henry, Jacob, John, Michael, Martin and Abraham (Jacob Bair's father) came to America. Due to religious persecution in their homeland and upon invitation from Queen Anne of England, they left their homeland in the Rhine Country and went to England and later to America. When so many Germans came to America; Governor Kieth and the English Crown became alarmed and made each immigrant, as they set foot on American soil, swear allegiance to the Crown. These records became the property of the State. In this way the Shiplists were preserved. (Byron 'Barney' Bair, 60 Bonney St., Steilacoom, WA)
